

Community Engagement Project

Road Trip

south africa

South Africa has thousands of Places of Interest (POIs). From monuments to museums, shipwrecks, memorials, historic places of worship, nature reserves, botanical gardens, art galleries and much more.

But where are they all located and what makes each one unique? The Road Trip SAApp can assist.

Road Trip SA is a smartphone app which can be easily downloaded from Google Play store or the App store.

GET IT ON
 Google Play

 Download on the
App Store

History Subject Group Leadership

Potchefstroom campus:
Dr Chris Holdridge
(Subject Leader)

Mahikeng campus:
Mr Emile Coetzee
(Deputy Subject-Head)

Vanderbijlpark campus:
Ms Basetsana Tsuwane
(Deputy Subject-Leader)

HISTORY

Contact us

 018 299 4003 (Undergraduate degrees)
018 299 4004 (Higher degrees)

 Humanities@nwu.ac.za

 <http://humanities.nwu.ac.za/>

 @mynwuhumanities

Why study History?

Studying History equips you with the tools needed for analytic thinking and critical engagement with the world.

With a degree in History, several different career paths are open to you. These include:

- Policy Analyst
- Journalist
- Researcher
- Museum Curator
- Heritage Consultant
- Academic
- School teacher
- Librarian

Our History Modules

- HIST 112: Introduction to History
- HIST 123: Themes in World History
- HIST 213: Reflections on South Africa in Africa
- HIST 223: Analysis of contemporary historical themes
- HIST 312: Historical perspectives
- HIST 323: The nature, theory and practice

History Heritage modules

(available at Vanderbijlpark campus only)

- HIST 122- Introduction to heritage and cultural tourism
- HIST 212- Heritage and cultural tourism-representation of the South African past
- HIST 322- Heritage and cultural tourism in post-colonial South Africa

Post-graduate degrees:
BA History Hons, MA and PhD

“History ... is a study of our present lives through a reflection of our shared past”

Mashala April, MA Student

“History has helped me understand that the present is a gift heavily influenced by the past”

Keabaka Tsholo, MA Student

